REDUCES MONCRIEF RECORD

T. M. GREEN RUNS MILE IN 1:38% IN WINNING JACKSONVILLE RACE.

James Rowe's Lahore Qualifies for the Derby in Impressive Fashion-Tommie Thompson Equals Track Mark in Taking Juvenile Dash.

Jacksonville, Fla., January 21.—One of the best programs of the season was provided at Moncrief Park this afternoon and with racing conditions almost perfect, a tremendous crowd turned out to witness the sport. High-class fields went to the post in a majority of the races and record-breaking performances were in order. T. M. Green beat a shifty lot in the mile allowance race and incidentally established a new mark for Moncrief Park by circling the course in 1:35g, which reduced the old record by two-fifths of a second. T. M. Green carried 107 pounds, made all of his own pace and beat Desconnets out a length.

In the feature race, the Magnolla Stakes, a handicap at seven-eighths, for three-year-olds and upward, James Rowe's American Derby candidate, Lahore, beat one of the best bands that have gone to the post here this winter, winning by three-quarters of a length from Jack Parker in 1:26g. Lahore carried 104 pounds to Barleythorpe's 110, overcame much interference and won like a really good colt. The start was made on the turn and directly after the break in the scramble for positions, Lahore was caught in a jam and jockey Burns was forced to pull up. On the backstretch, Lahore was a distant trailer and appeared hopelessly out of it. Burns used good judgment in permitting him to get settled in his stride before making his run. At the turn out of the backstretch he steered Lahore to the outside and, rounding the far turn, closed on the leaders with a rush. Entering the homestretch he was on the extreme outside and was carried wide, had the with the set of the later, another con tender loomed up in Jack Parker, which made a determined effort, but was mable to pass the Rowe colt, Barleythorpe was a tiring third two lengths back and a nose in advance of Mary Davis. A meeting between Lahore and Aldrian would do inuch toward indicating the probable winner of the American Derby, to be run here on the last day of the meeting.

Tommle Thompson, the Peep o'Day colt that J. W. May is handling for L. P. Doerhofer, scored of J. R. Marquette, Jr.

While being warmed up for the third race, the Schorr coit, Aylmer, went lame and was excused by the judges. This necessitated bets being declared off and twenty minutes allowed for new booking.

Because of the fact that Marlboro, Md., was not mentioned when the Jockey Club announced dates for the meetings at Norfolk, Va., and Pimlico, rumors have been afloat to the effect that the Jockey Club had not taken kindly to the last meeting at Marlboro and that they might not sanction the proposed meeting this spring. Arthur Elrod, who is the manager of this palet gave the reason vesterday Marlboro and that they might not sanction the proposed meeting this spring. Arthur Eirod, who is the manager of this plant, gave the reason yesterday why no dates had been allotted to Marlboro when he stated that he had not filed his application as yet and would not do so until the stewards of the Jockey Club hold their next meeting, in February. Mr. Eirod has held back because he wanted to see just how much progress the workmen had made in constructing the new mile track and grandstand. Mr. Eirod believes that everything will be in readiness for the meeting to follow that at Pimlico and will ask for dates accordingly.

He says that his club will give two meetings this season and that the purses will be increased to $400 as compared with $200 last season. Recont work-outs at Moncrief Park:

DEAD HEAT RECORDED AT JUAREZ.

El Paso, Tex., January 21.—Ideal racing conditions today drew the largest Saturday crowd of the Juarez meeting, fully 5,000 spectators being present. The feature event of the day was the Victorina Selling Stakes, at one mile, and, while the field was lamentably small, it proved one of the most exciting contests of the season and resulted in the first dead heat ever run over the Juarez track, Dorante and General Marchmont running as a team the entire distance, and in the last sixteenth of the race, nose and nose in perfect stride together.

The success of four favorites caused general rejoicing among the large holiday crowd present.

Two additional books cut in today, with G. H. Moylett and "Big" McInerney as the guiding spirits.

The horses Spellbound and Seymour Beutler arrived its.

The horses Spellbound and Seymour Beutler arrived late this afternoon from Oakland.

C. A. Canfield, a prominent business man of Los Angeles, arrived today to stay the season.

Francisco Portillo, the newly appointed mayor of Juarez, was an interested spectator during the afternoon.

Trancisco Portillo, the newly appointed mayor of Juarez, was an interested spectator during the afternoon.

At the conclusion of the stake race General Marchmont was bid up $1.505 by W. Hurley, trainer for E. R. Bradley, but was retained by his owner.

Jack Atkin, in his preliminary work-out for the stake tomorrow, pulled up quite lame and it is doubtful if he will be sent to the post for that event.

At a sale in the paddock before the races, Sigurd. a promising three-year-old, owned by J. Tholl, and talked of as a likely possibility for the coming Derby. was sold to Powell & Parker for $1.400. W. Walker made a bid of $1,350, but would go no further.

Castor, a two-year-old, and Booker T., a three-year-old, were sold to Chief Deigo Duran at a paddock sale for $55 cach.

While being schooled at the barrier, the three-year-old gray gelding Unconquered burst a blood vessel in the head and died a few moments later. He was by Sir Hamptom—La Reina, and was owned by W. P. & L. E. Fine. He raced only once as a two-year-old and was regarded as promising.

RUSHING LEGISLATION IN CALIFORNIA.

RUSHING LEGISLATION IN CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Cal., January 21.—Arasee scored another victory over Eddie Dale when he won the Cadmus Handicap at Oakland today. This race was the feature of a good card and was witnessed by a large crowd. Although Arasee had beaten the three-year-old the last time they met, Eddie Dale again ruled favorite. Rosevale made most of the early pace, but when the stretch was reached Arasee Assumed command and, drawing away, won handily from Eddie Dale.

Fine weather favored the racing, but the track was muddy. Oakland added another purse to his credit when he led Millo and Ymir home in the two-year-old dash. Fort Johnson was a heavily backed favorite for the fifth race and got up in time to beat Coppertown, the pacemaker.

Gen. Thomas McGregor, a retired cavalry officer, is anxious to have Congress consider the purchase of thoroughbred stallions for the army, and with this in view will try and interest the California congressmen in the project. General McGregor is in this city on a visit.

According to a report from Sacramento the Walker-Young bill will be passed by the assembly and senate next week and it is expected that Governor Johnson will affix his signature within a day or two. The bill reads that it shall take effect from and after its passage. No fight will be made in the assembly. There is a chance that an amendment providing for pari-mutuels may be Introduced when the matter comes up in the senate.

Jack Afkin, the well-known layer, has bought Amon from George W. Berry for $3.500. He will take the crack youngster to New York to race.

R. J. Farris bought four of the horses offered at auction today by T. W. Flynn at low prices. He paid $55 for Darknight, $50 for Agreement, $75 for Point Lace and $150 for Nextie Traver. W. Rogers secured Waponoca for $210. Lotta Creed and Home Run were bid in.

Henry Shaw bought Anna Virginia and Ada Sain from Earl Linnell.

John H. Sheehan, a notoriously bad actor at the post, has been placed on the schooling list.

CANADIAN DATE SCHEDULE ARRANGED.

Torono, Ont., January 21.—At a meeting of the committee of the Canadian Racing Associations the following racing dates were allotted for 1911: Ontario Jockey Club, Toronto. May 20 to May 27. It was resolved that the further entries of horses now or in future owned by S. A. Clopton and R. D. Williams be refused by jockey clubs or racing associations under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Racing Associations.

ing Associations.

The arrangement of the date schedule is similar to that of 1910, providing for two meetings of seven days duration, beginning on Saturdays at each of the courses under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Racing Associations, with an interregnum of five days between the various meetings, except in the case of the fall meeting at Windsor, which will open and close on Monday, in order to provide for racing on Labor Day at that track.

TAMPA PURSES TO BE REDUCED.

Tampa, Fla., January 21.—Rough riding in most of the races today contributed to mar the sport. Octopus, winner of the hurdle race, was aided to his success by the interference to which he subjected Cull on the first turn.

Beginning Monday, the purses will be $150 pending readjustment of affairs in the betting ring, according to a notice posted for the information of the horsemen this afternoon. It is said that the ring is a big loser and that Smith, Colby & Jones are dissatisfied with their bargain. It is generally believed that the firm will continue business, however.

The attendance today was of goodly proportions and speculation was fairly brisk. The success of most of the favorites again entailed losses to the bookmakers.

VALUABLE STAKES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., January 21.—Unless some big added money feature is announced for Louisville or Latonia, the Breeders' Futurity for two-year-olds, which is to be decided on the opening day of the Kentucky Association's spring meeting here, will be the richest stake of the year in Kentucky.

Secretary Garret D. Wilson, in making announcement today of the January payments to the Breeders' Futurity, Camden Handicap and the Blue Grass Stakes, shows the Futurity to be now worth $6,115, and starters are to pay $75 each additional. The Futurity, therefore, is already richer than the Kentucky Derby, which has a guaranteed value of $6,600. The eligibles to the Futurity number sixty two two-year-olds that were highly tried as year-lings last fall.

The Camden Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a quarter, has twenty-two eligibles with a present value of $2,030, and starters are to pay $75 additional. The eligibles are: Kootenay, St. Heller. Meridian, Outlan, St. Aloysius, Jabot, Sebago, Exemplar, Shamon, Premier. Golden Egg, Du Bols, Captain Carmody. JOHN MADDEN GETS $50,000 AWARD.

New York, January 21.—An interlocutory judgment for $50,000 damages against Louis V. Bell, banker, in favor of John E. Madden, well-known turfman, which was obtained in the lower court, has been upheld by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court. The suit grew out of the sale of tace horses at Sheepshead Bay in 1905. Mr. Madden claimed that his wife, Anna Louise Megrue Madden, who then had an action pending against him for divorce in Ohio, was induced by Mr. Bell to sue out an injuction deferring the sale so that when the sale was at last held he only realized $54,000, instead of $75,000 he would have obtained had it not been for the injunction.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Lemberg's great rival, Neil Gow, will race no more because of unsoundness and has been retired to the stud. Lemberg, on the other hand, is as sound as can be and will be raced extensively this

Colin is regarded with favor in England and has many high-class mares booked to him for this year and several alliances for 1912 have already been made. If he follows in the footsteps of his sire, Commando, and grandsire, Domino, his first progeny to race should create a sensation in 1913.
